Greensboro (September 25, 2006) - "Girls Just Want to Have Fun." The Southern Women's Show Bachelor Auction sponsored by 98.7 Simon will assure that all that fun comes to fruition. Saturday, September 30 at 3:00 pm at the Greensboro Coliseum, approximately 15 bachelors will be auctioned off to the highest bidder. The monies paid will benefit the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Central and Western North Carolina – but the newly united couple will receive a gift certificate for a local restaurant for their date.

Other activities that will benefit Make-A-Wish from the Southern Women's Show include the fireman's fashion show and BINGO.

Information on tickets and other Show events can be found at www.southernshows.com then by selecting the Triad show.

About the Make-A-Wish Foundation®

The Make-A-Wish Foundation® of Central and Western North Carolina covers the state from Burlington through the 51 counties to the west, with regional offices in Charlotte, Asheville and the Triad. Over the last 20 years, the Foundation has never turned down a wish for an eligible child. For more information, please visit www.ncwish.org or call 1-877-677-WISH.

The Make-A-Wish Foundation® grants the wishes of children with life-threatening medical conditions to enrich the human experience with hope, strength and joy. It is the largest wish-granting charity on the world, with 69 chapters in the United States and its territories and 27 international affiliates on five continents. With the help of generous donors and more than 25,000 volunteers, the Make-A-Wish Foundation® has granted over 141,000 wishes to children since 1980.
